GOOD NEWS FROM A FAR COUNTRY

Two Loyal Daytonians Sojourning in California Show Tangible Interest in Races.

WEATHER MAN DOES STUNTS WEST

The Daily News tries to maintain a certain reverence for private communications, and makes it a practice to be very confidential and tell no secrets. Every day, nearly, facts of interest are communicated in business, or friendly notes, which would look well in print. The subject of the letter will do nothing more than "call the editor down," and the public sympathy in this instance will be with the Daily News. With this explanation, the following letter, sent from Los Angeles, Cal., January 20, is published:

My Dear Old Friend Fitzgerald:
I received your kind letter the other day, but have mislaid it some place. However, our friend Mr. Snyder was good to see me, and we were talking over the coming races. I see by the Daily News you have raised the necessary amount to carry them out. While we are in California, where you are suffering from death, or traveling through the rain, we are wishing that we could enjoy the fine climate that Florida produces, and meet our old friends and the congenial boys that visit the Club.

"Snyder said: 'It is still raining. I wish I was in Florida.' We are both tiring on taking a run down in time for the races."

Enclosed find check for $50, which Mr. Snyder with $25, and myself with $25, to help the races along. Only wish were both there. Yours truly,
"GEO. E. SEBRING."

HE SELLS PENCILS ON STREETS.

Henry B. Rouse, Legless And Otherwise Maimed, Has Had Miraculous Escape

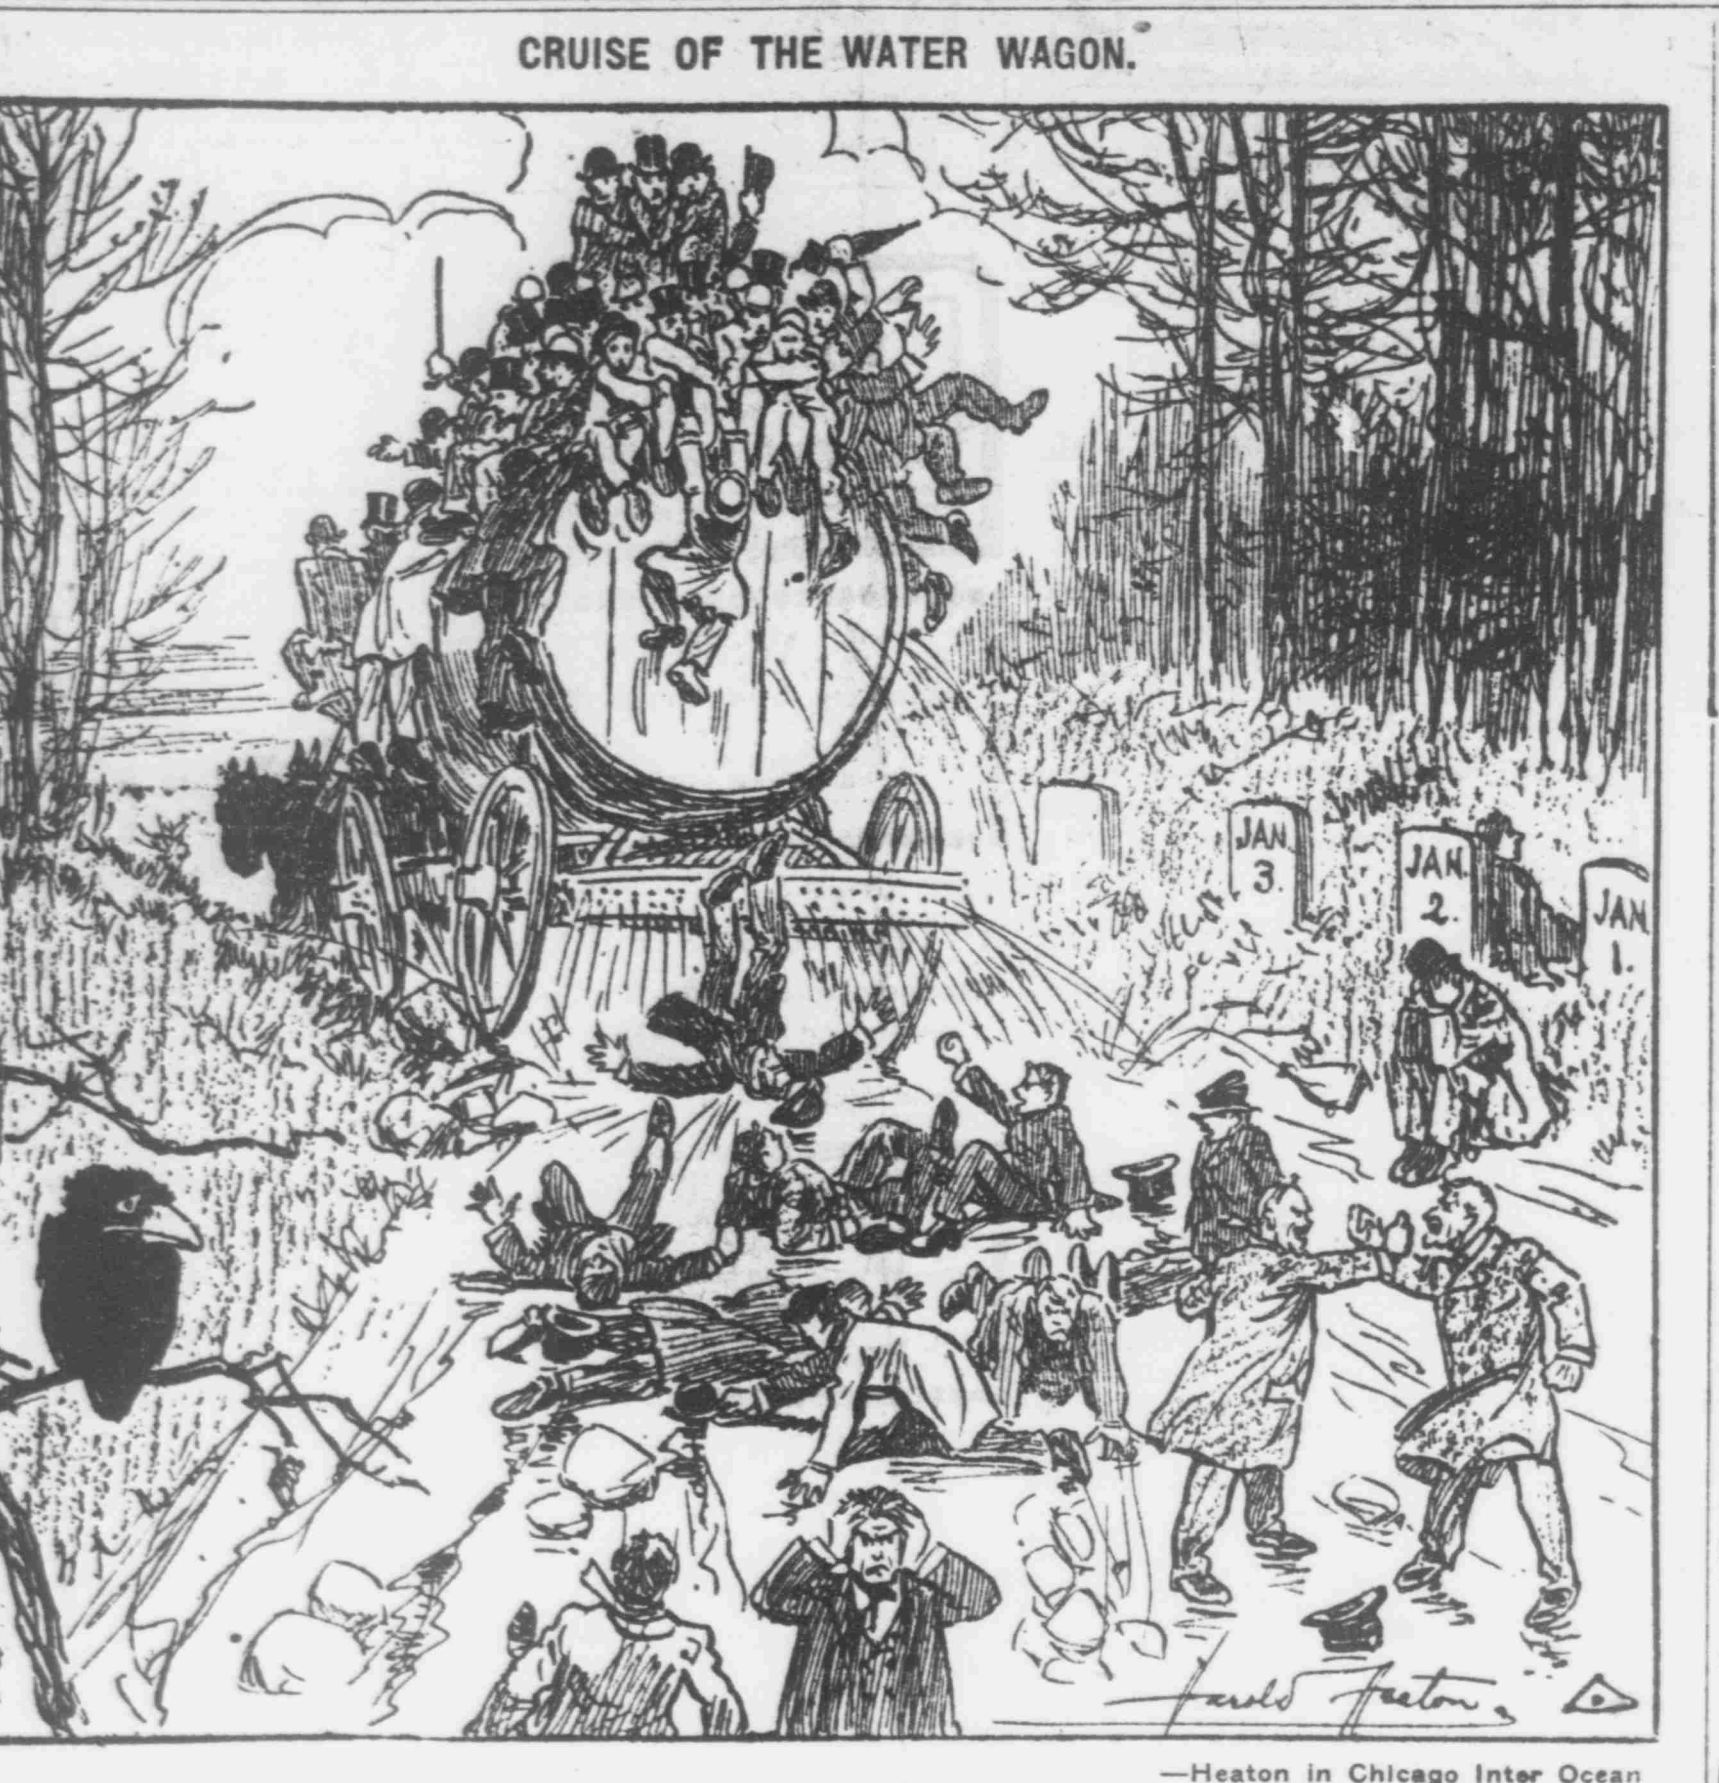

AND HE IS A BIRD OF PASSAGE.

When he hears a person strong and well complain simply because fate has not provided a bountiful store of this world's goods, Henry B. Rouse, now an object of pity in Daytona, smiles, for he knows what real hardship is; still he utters no complaint.

He has neither wealth nor hardly a fighting chance to get it, but he tries to be cheerful at all times and makes the most of what opportunities come his way, and he is thankful for what he gets. He has been a life of suffering such as few men have endured, and the fact that he is alive is a wonder to all medical men who have seen him.

Both his legs are amputated near the body, so he has to lift himself by his hands and swing himself along, and his teeth and the roof of his mouth and the bone of his nose have been cut away to check the progress of scrofula, from which disease he has suffered for more than a decade. He is now 26 years old. His height is about eighteen inches, and he weighs eighty-one pounds.

Despite the handicap under which he labors he supports himself by selling pencils on the streets. He has been in Savannah, Jacksonville and St. Augustine and will go from Daytona to Tampa, where he will remain through the winter. He is an unusually interesting conversationalist, and the fact that he overcame the morphine habit after he had been obliged to use the drug during a long period of intense suffering shows that he has remarkable will power. He says that his principal endeavor is to lead a Christian life. He was baptized in a Baptist Church in North Carolina about two years ago. He uses neither tobacco nor liquor. He hopes to get money enough this winter to establish a small business.

LIKE TAFT; EAT POSSUM.

Taft and Roosevelt are not the only ones who eat possum these days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. White, Tuesday evening, can testify.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Paine, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Luce, Mr. and Mrs. Langley, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kling, and Mrs. C. W. Collier sat down to a long table laden with the good Florida edibles, not the least of which were the possums at each end, roasted to a turn with "raters." Yellow yucca decorations made an effective setting for Br'er Possum and all did ample justice to the bountiful Florida repast.

DAYTONA VS. DELAND.

The ball game between Daytona and Deland, to be played at the latter place Friday afternoon, is assured, says Manager W. G. Nash, of the Daytona Club, and the players will leave here in automobiles about noon of that day.

This affords an opportunity for parties from the city, particularly those who own automobiles, to make a pleasant trip to Deland and see an interesting game of baseball. With no rain between this time and Friday the Deland road will be in very good condition, in fact it is very fine now with the exception of a short stretch this side of Mt. Ararat.

WILLETT'S ROAST OF PRESIDENT

Will Not Go On Record—He Protests That He Was Within His Rights.

A LITTLE TOO MUCH GINGER.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The special committee appointed to investigate the conduct of Congressman Willett, Democrat, of New York, who on January 18, said in a speech that President Roosevelt was a "gargoyles," "pigmies," "bogus here," etc., today presented its report. "Freedom of speech in the House should never be a ridge, but this does not mean a license to abuse or ridicule. The right of members to criticize the President is subject to proper rules of decorum," says the report. The report suggested that the only way to wipe from the records the objectionable remarks would be to strike out the entire speech. Appended to the report was a letter of Representative Willett protesting that he was within his rights when he made the speech.

The House unanimously passed the resolution offered by Chairman Mann.

NEW SMYRNA BANKER GETS DAMAGES

Federal Court Decision Awards Him $25,000 Damages Against Alleged Trust.

JAB FOR JACKSONVILLE GROCERS

A Federal Court verdict of considerable local interest was returned Saturday afternoon in the case of John T. Hammond, of Orlando, president of the State Bank of New Smyrna.

Hammond charged that certain grocery firms were united in restraint of trade, thereby forming a trust, and that by such combination had forced him out of the grocery business. Hammond fought for months to get his case before the Federal Court, and when it reached trial he had an eighteen days' conflict in which every inch of legal ground was contested. He won out with damages for $25,000, his suit being for $200,000.

The case was styled as Hammond vs. Consolidated Grocery Company et al.

Damages were assessed against the following grocers: Consolidated Grocery Company, C. W. Bartleson Company, J. H. McLauren Company, Baker & Holmes Company, United Grocery Company, Miller & Mallard Grocery Company, C. H. Hargreaves Company, Jacksonville Grocery Company and the McNerny Grocery Company, whom Hammond alleged to be members of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, which refused him membership and forced him to go out of business because he could not buy goods from producing firms.

Attorneys for the grocers gave notice that they would file a motion for a new trial, and this matter will come before the court later.

John M. Fuquay has one-half acre almost in the heart of the town in one of the finest truck gardens to be found anywhere. About one-half of the garden is planted with English peas, of a sturdy, self-supporting stock, full of blooms and young pods. They are as thrifty as plants could be and promise a splendid yield. Besides peas he has planted 15,000 onion sets, and has carrots, radishes, turnips, mustard, squash, Irish potatoes and numerous beds of Rock-wool cactuses coming on. Mr. Fuquay says he has used very little fertilizer and yet the garden is a bower of the richest green, and everything shows every indication of being well nourished. Mr. Fuquay says he has been offered temptingly for this garden plot this winter but has not decided to part with it.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, game food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed pelican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stigling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path, with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and hiding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

It Won't Take Long For You To Get Inoculated With The Fast Company Germ.

After addressing himself to some business matters, ex-Sheriff Jack Turner adds a postscript to a letter to this office, which shows that if once well out with the "push" he would go the pace, and enjoy it.
Here is the postscript: "That Red Bird you were in yesterday looked good to me." Signed, "Jack." And the "Red Bird" performed just as good as it looked. The road was rough, especially on the DeLand end, where it has been newly worked, neces-itating slow driving, and still the trip was made in an hour and half.
With the road in proper shape the distance is very easily covered inside an hour.
The ex-Sheriff should indulge himself, and make more frequent visits to his friends on the coast.
